

Aidan's Meadow...Life As It Should Be

Once in a great while we find ourselves in a place and time where everything seems 'just right' Aidan's Meadow is such a place and now is the time.

Located in the beautiful Brush Creek Valley, within Eagle Ranch, Aidan's Meadow offers sweeping vistas of the surrounding mountains and magnificent old cottonwoods along the nearby creek. From your deck watch deer and elk graze while steps away you'll enjoy incredible amenities like an Arnold Palmer signature golf course, shopping, fantastic dining, a theater, parks and recreation trails.

Select from a variety of homes tastefully designed in the classic Victorian, Prairie and Craftsman styles. Each one offering a variety of exterior finishes and colors that will make each home blend beautifully with the surroundings. A selection of interior features and finishes allows you to shape your home to fulfill your dreams of the ideal living space.

Whether you're seeking the perfect setting to raise your family, or a place where you can pursue those things in life you most enjoy, Aidan's Meadow is perfectly situated to help you realize the dream. Here, you'll find all of the wonderful possibilities of mountain living at your doorstep. A place where idyllic views of historic Brush Creek Valley open before you to the surrounding peaks, while all the amenities of Eagle Ranch, with great schools, convenient shopping and outdoor recreational opportunities can be found right in your backyard. Most importantly, Aidan's Meadow was conceived as a place for community. A place to enjoy things like quiet tree lined streets, a dedicated community park and that old-time sense of 'neighborhood' you once knew.

Aidan's Meadow is truly the place to enjoy life as it should be.
